Hello Folks;

Received both of your letters and the check contained in your last letter. You really shouldn't have sent it but I put it to good use.

Glad that you liked the picture that we had taken. It wasn't much but it will do until I can send some others home.

In speaking of pictures, you asked why I hadn't kept any. I did keep five pictures and the only reason that I sent the others home was because my personal gear box was rather cramped for space.

I used the money order as security to borrow a dollar and then the fellow told me to keep it as he trusted me. Am returning the M.O. to you. Thanks for the favor but I can't seem to feel that I should accept money from you. I know how hard it is to manage a home and I don't want you to have it any harder. Please don't ever send me any more money. I believe that I will be able to manage very nicely on what money

I will receive.

Wont Mom tell her that I am having two pictures made. One for her and one for you and Eddie and little Diane. The medals I was talking about I will tell about in another letter.

Got quite a kick out of reading about Diane chicks. Bet the little chick has a picnic playing with them. Often wonder if she would recognize me if I should happen to come home in the near future.

Hoping that internal strife wont rear its ugly head too often and praying for your health and happiness, I still think of all of you

Love from your Son, Brother, Brother in law & Uncle
George
